INTRODUCTION

Enter Edo, the 17th century capital city of feudal Japan. Rami, a seemingly typical teen, has been the keeper of the Key to the Secret Treasure. Rami is really a descendent of aliens who came to earth in ancient times. But what is this mystery treasure the missing Key unlocks? Rami doesn't know the importance of the treasure, nor does her overbearing grandmother remember what secret the Key unlocks. But one thing is certain: the Key has been stolen (while Rami was at the local mini-mart, a common hangout for teens then) and now she must get the Key back.

Rami rides into battle on her trusty dragon “Spot” as she encounters an octopus sea monster, the U.S. Navy, and the Russian Army until she arrives at the ship of Dr. Pon. Dr. Pon, billed as the most intelligent creature on earth with an IQ of 1400, has the appearance of a raccoon, appropriate for the thief that he is.
